

Write a Revolution – “Fight Like a Girl” Poetry Slam

The Domestic Violence Action Centre invites all young people, gals, guys, and nonbinary pals, aged 15 – 25, to join this brilliant opportunity to work with award winning and professional poet Anisa Nandaula & educator Sinéad Nunan, where you will workshop poetry writing and ‘slam’ performance, whilst exploring ideas about what it means to “Fight Like a Girl” in 2021.

You don’t have to be a brilliant English student nor exceed in poetry or drama... do you love lyrics or rap? Do you love to speak out loud or write your words, thoughts and feelings?? This is a safe space for everyone to have a fair go and have fun.

Let’s challenge gender stereotypes and expectations, and promote positive, equal, and respectful relationships. Fight Like a Girl focuses on shifting and challenging the attitudes and beliefs that downplay, excuse, and minimise women’s experiences of violence.

After the workshops, participants will battle it out on the stage, performing their own original pieces.

This is a free event, but you must register to participate.

Register at: ed@dvac.org.au

Dinner will also be provided & cool prizes, like iPad’s, to be won. If you have any questions, please contact Sinead ed@dvac.org.au
